Dear Rising Sixth Graders,

I hope you are excited about entering Logic School. I am looking forward to leading you on a journey through wonderful works of literature.

Your summer reading assignment is The Voyage of the Dawn Treader by C. S. Lewis. Attached you will find the activities that accompany the reading.

- Activity 1: Complete the "Freytag's Pyramid" (shark fin or plot diagram) for the novel. This is due on the first day of school.
- Activity 2: Follow the instructions underneath "As you read the book." This is due on the first day of school.

You may find it helpful to read this book aloud, have a parent read it to you while you follow along, or download an audio version to listen to while you follow along.

If you have any questions, please feel free to email me. My email address is kterry@chcslongview.com.

Many blessings,

Mrs. Karol Terry

THE VOYAGE

CHART THE COURSE OF THE DAWN TREADER AS IT SETS SAIL FOR ADVENTURE!

As you read the books, follow the line to see the route taken by King Caspian and his crew.

- 1) Label the places where the Dawn Treader travels on the numbered lines provided.
- 2) Write down the name(s) of the lord(s) the crew members meet or discover at these places.

Use the lists of locations and names of the seven lords to help you label your map.

WHO SAID IT?
 "Then it is after the Lone Islands that the adventure really begins."

NAMES OF LORDS: Lord Restimar • Lord Rhoop • Lord Oxteisan • Lord Argos • Lord Mayramoom • Lord Bern • Lord Revilian

NAMES OF PLACES: Terebinthia • Galma • Lone Islands • Avra • Felimath • Bemstead • Narrowshaven • Doorn • Other Islands • Coeslain's Island • Burnt Island • Deathwater Island • Dark Island • Ramonch's Island • Dragon Island • Steven Isles • Redhaven on the Isle of Bearn • Mail

YOUR TURN Why do they set sail? What did Caspian vow he would do (with Aslan's approval) once peace was established in Narnia?

BONUS Imagine you are one of King Caspian's loyal crew. Choose three locations from this map. Then use the book to write creative journal entries describing what happened, who you met, and what you saw there!
